Toronto to Collaborate with Ontario Municipalities through AMO Membership

Toronto, December 19, 2024 – I am pleased to announce Toronto City Council has unanimously adopted a Resolution to join the Association of Municipalities of Ontario (AMO). This strategic decision aims to strengthen our collaboration with other municipalities across Ontario, while preserving Toronto’s direct government-to-government relationships with the Provincial and Federal governments

The new AMO membership is a thoughtful and strategic decision for Toronto, reflecting our extensive history of current and past collaborations with AMO. These collaborations include participation in the Canada Community Building Fund Oversight Committee, the Affordable Housing and Homelessness Task Force, and the National Housing Strategy Trilateral Coordination Forum.

Councillor Paul Ainslie was proudly appointed to the Association of Municipalities of Ontario (AMO) Board of Directors for the term from January 1, 2025, to November 14, 2026.

"I am ready to make a positive contribution to the Association of Municipalities of Ontario. I am confident AMO membership will strengthen our municipality and enhance the quality of life for all residents," stated Councillor Ainslie.

This membership will further enhance the City of Toronto's ability to address critical challenges and leverage shared resources effectively, ensuring Toronto remains at the forefront of municipal innovation and collaboration.
